SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

There follows a list of prominent members of the Yugoslav Communist Party in Split:

1. Anticevic, Ivo: President, Court of Arbitration. Aged 50, tall, stout, grey hair, lawyer by profession, graduate University of Zagreb, married to a former Miss Bulic, daughter of prominent lawyer, and has two children. A complete opportunist, he was first a nationalist, later a follower of Macek, subsequently an Ustasha, and is now an active Communist Party member.
2. Anticevic, Dr. Miro: President, Popular Tribunal. Brother of Dr. Ivo Anticevic. Aged 38, he is a tall, slender man, with a moustache and a graduate of the University of Zagreb Law School. An opportunist, it suits his current convenience to be a Communist Party member.
3. Benzon, Mileva: Member of the Communist Party Committee for Dalmatia. Born in Vranjic, she is married but uses her maiden name. A graduate of the Belgrade law school, she was strongly pro-Communist before the war. Described as tall, heavy-set, masculine in appearance, with a deep voice. Age 39.
4. Benzon, Cirilka: Hospital Commissar of island of Hvar. Sister of Milova Benzon. Aged 45, thin, tall, long face, wears glasses. Fanatic Communist. Single and uneducated.
5. Benzon, Miro: Communist leader of the village of Vranjic. Brother of Milova Benzon. Aged 52, tall, heavy set, grey hair. He has one son aged 20, former Ustasha, who fled to Italy, and another at home. Provincial Adviser to Fisheries Department of Dalmatia. Hated because he organized the mobilization of youth into Communist ranks at the beginning of the war, most of whom never returned.
6. Benzon, Vejekoslav: Communist Party chief of Vranjic. No relation to Miro Benzon. Described as aged 44, tall, average stature, greying hair. Organizes terroristic activities in the village against non-Communists.
7. Bonacchi, Jerko: Lieutenant Yugoslav Navy, Split. Purser for Navy headquarters. Aged 35, small, fat, swarthy. Communist Party member. Reportedly stole five million lire from the Prva Pucka Dalatinska Banka for the Communist Party.
